CEO MESSAGE

A Premier Construction Company based in Juba, South Sudan, established in 2006 and incorporated under the laws of south Sudan with authority of Ministry of Legal Affairs and Constitutional Development in 2009.

We are mandated to carry out building and construction of Infrastructure, Super structure, Industrial, Residential and Engineering Works on both Local and International Contracts

ABOUT US

A subsidiary of Trinity Holdings, Amoco Construction Group was founded in 2006 and incorporated under the laws of south Sudan with authority of Ministry of Legal Affairs and Constitutional Development in 2009. The company is based in South Sudan but has a global outlook with regards to business strategy.

Company Purpose

Amoco Construction Group is mandated to carry out buiding and construction of Insfrastructure, Super structure, Industrial, Residential and Engineering Works on both Local and International Contracts. This is to say that under these contracts, Amoco will design, construct and maintain road, building (both residential and business) and public utility projects such as dams, schools, and hospitals.

OUR MISSION

To become a renowned construction company in Africa through efficient mobilization of suitable equipment & human resource to client sites and the delivery of prompt quality construction works

OUR VISION

To bring to our clients a portfolio of quality and timely construction works that meet international standards as we maximize long-term return to shareowners and foster an environment of inspiration and teamwork among members of staff.

- ★ A wide network with potential local and international clients

Quality policy & objectives

As a new country, South Sudan is just setting up systems that will measure and reward quality particularly in the building and construction sector. Quality is however, an integral part of Amoco Construction Group; even without this regulatory intervention, Acg is benchmarking with the best construction standards across the globe so that its clients not only receive quality works, but enjoy safety and longevity of projects.

Business model

Amoco Construction Group is a centralised business with its headquarters in Juba City, South Sudan. Even though it is intended that with time certain departments become decentralised, the business as this point in time, will operate out of Juba with frequent travel of its key personnel to project sites and customer locations.

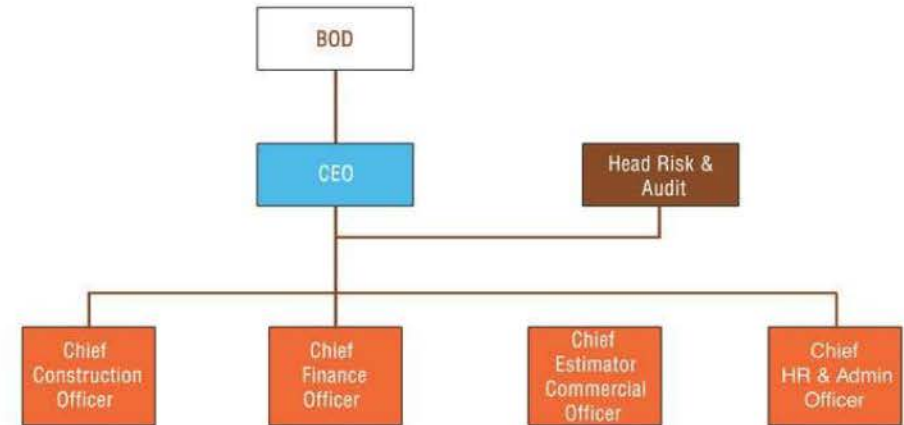

Value Chain

Amoco aims to provide infrastructure on behalf of governments for the benefits of its people and on behalf of businesses for the benefits of their customers. The firm therefore is a service provider that ensures both governments and businesses meet the needs of their stakeholders.

MANAGEMENT & OWNERSHIP

- ❖ Amoco is owned by shareholders and run by a board of Directors. It is at this level where strategy decisions are made.
- ❖ Below the Board of Director is a Chief Executive Office and the Executive Committee (EXCO) that oversees the implementation of the policies and strategy set by the Board of Directors
